Songs for the Sea
(adapted by Meg Fleming for Ready, Set, Sail!

A Sailor Went To Sea

A sailor went to sea, sea, sea.
To see what he could see, see, see.
But all that he could see, see, see.
Was the bottom of the deep blue sea, sea, sea!

A sailor went to zip, zip, zip.
To see if he could zip, zip, zip.
But all that he could zip, zip, zip.
Was the bottom of the deep blue drip, drip, drip!

A sailor went to swish, swish, swish.
To see what he could swish, swish, swish.
But all that he could swish, swish, swish.
Was the bottom of the deep blue fish, fish, fish!

A sailor went to steer, steer, steer.
To see what he could steer, steer, steer.
But all that he could steer, steer, steer.
Was the bottom of the deep blue pier, pier, pier!

A sailor went to sail, sail, sail.
To see what he could, sail, sail, sail.
But all that he could sail, sail, sail.
Was the bottom of a deep blue whale… whale… whale!

THE SAILING SONG

(Just add rhyme):

(spoken) When I was one… I _____, the day I went to sea

(chorus)
I climbed aboard a sailing ship and the captain said to me
"I'm going this way that way, forwards and backwards, over the raging sea
I chew some gum to fill my tum, now that's the life for me."

(chorus)

When I was two… I _____

(chorus)

When I was three… I _____
